- VII. Old Business: There was no old business.
- VIII. New Business: Plainfield Township residents, Barb Kujath and Vern Kujath ask if the bill to abolish Township government has passed. Mr. Argoudelis explained there are two bills HB268 which supports creating a larger committee and allows input from local governments. Local governments need the opportunity to show how tax dollars are used and can be saved for the benefit of all taxpayers. This bill as passed in the House. It now needs to go to the Senate.

Bill SB1926 allows a small committee to abolish local government without input from those local bodies. Furthermore, it allows the committee to take action without a vote from the House and Senate.

IX. Adjournment

A motion to adjourn the Annual Town Meeting was made by Chuck Willard seconded by Tony Fremarek. Voice vote taken. Motion carries. Annual Town Meeting of April 12, 2011 was adjourned 6:25 p.m.
